

LMU | Lincoln Memorial University

HARROGATE, TENNESSEE

Faculty Post-Test Training Survey for OEP – Transparency: “We CAN See It Clearly Now”

Directions: For the following statements, please rate your level of agreement from Strongly Disagree (1) to Strongly Agree (5).

Statement	Strongly Disagree	Disagree	Neutral	Agree	Strongly Agree
1. I understand and can explain to students the importance of becoming aware of the purpose of their assignments.	1	2	3	4	5
2. I understand and can explain to students the importance of the criteria for completing their assignments in my courses at LMU.	1	2	3	4	5
3. I understand and can explain to students the importance of tasks assigned to them as part of the assignments I use in the courses I teach at LMU.	1	2	3	4	5
4. Ensuring that students have a sense of belonging in the classroom is important to their learning.	1	2	3	4	5
5. Providing complete, meaningful, and well-explained examples of completed assignments when giving new assignments to students is important to their learning.	1	2	3	4	5
6. Giving students the opportunity to build confidence in the classroom is important to their learning.	1	2	3	4	5
7. Students’ understanding of why potential employers and graduate schools will want them to have the skills and knowledge as covered in this course is important to their current learning.	1	2	3	4	5
8. I am aware of where I can find help in creating and providing transparent syllabi and assignments for my classes.	1	2	3	4	5
9. I am aware of the percentage of students at LMU that are first generation students, Appalachian Region students, commuting students, and students from Lee County, VA, Claiborne County, TN, and Bell County, KY.	1	2	3	4	5