

Stephen J. Miller DO, MPH

Assistant Professor of Osteopathic Principles and Practice and Family Medicine
Lincoln Memorial University-DeBusk College of Osteopathic Medicine
6965 Cumberland Gap Parkway
Harrogate, Tennessee 37752
Office: 423-869-7125
Fax: 423-869-7173
email: stephen.miller@lmunet.edu

Curriculum Vitae

- July, 2009-
Present Assistant Professor of Osteopathic Principles and Practice and Family Medicine. DeBusk College of Osteopathic Medicine, Harrogate TN. My Duties include lecture presentations, lab teaching, and maintain a clinical Practice within the medical school's clinic
- March 2006-
July, 2009 Osteopathic Program Director, Family Medicine Residency. Lehigh Valley Hospital and Health Network. Allentown, PA. My responsibilities included integration of osteopathic curricula into the family medicine residency program, supervision of faculty and to ensure that the program meets AOA requirements necessary to maintain dual accreditation.
Associate Program Director, Family Medicine Residency, Lehigh Valley Hospital and Health Network. My responsibilities include managing daily needs of the residency program, be a faculty preceptor, maintain a clinical practice, and provide support for the Vice-Chair, other faculty, and residents.
- July, 1988-
March, 2006 Medical Director for rural health primary care center: K&C Quint Memorial Health Center, North Anson, Maine.
Responsibilities:
Provide direct patient care services to adult and children populations (8000 visits annually),
Supervise mid-level providers,
Design and implement quality assurance programs, including most recently Diabetes and Cardiovascular Disease Collaboratives using the Chronic Care Model.
- July 1988-
March, 2006 School physician to School Administrative District #74.
Responsibilities: Develop standing and emergency preparedness orders, Assist 504, IEP, and IHP planning for individual students and their PCP, teachers, and families,
Assist District in development of health-related activities, including procurement of funding.
- July 1988-
Feb. 2006 Active Staff Physician, Inland Hospital, Waterville, Maine
- July 1988-
Feb. 2006 Clinical Preceptor, University of New England College Osteopathic Medicine, through Maine AHEC.
Responsibilities: Clinical Education of medical students on rotating monthly basis.

- 2004-2005 Member, State of Maine Steering Committee for Physicians and Schools
Mission: provide physicians and schools with ways to coordinate school health programs that spark and support community health efforts to improve youth health.
- Aug. 2004-
Jan. 2005 Volunteer staff advisor and program writer, Maine Bureau of Health, Community Health Division, Coordinated School Health Program. My responsibility was to help design a program to better include Maine's Primary Care Providers in school health services, health education, and health-related school activities.
- 1997-2002 Medical Advisor to Medical Assistant and Allied Health Program
Kennebec Valley Community College, Fairfield, Maine.
Responsibilities:
Assist with curriculum development, didactic and clinical teaching of students
- 1997-2002 Chair, Medical Assisting Advisory Board. Kennebec Valley Community College, Fairfield, Maine.
Responsibilities:
Assist with accreditation of program, and procurement and oversight of clinical clerkships for program participants
- 1998-2000 SAD 74 Maine School District Physician/ coordinator to implement Maine State Child Immunization Program standard of 100% compliance across Somerset County Maine
- 1993-1998 Chair, Department of Family Practice, Inland Hospital, Waterville, Maine.
Responsibilities: Coordinate departmental issues. During my tenure, scopes of care guidelines were implemented for several disease pathways
- 1990-1991 Chair, Quality Assurance Committee, Inland Hospital, Waterville, Maine.
Responsibility:
Provide leadership to transition the medical staff's quality assurance program to a quality improvement plan.
- July 1984-
July 1987 Staff Physician, National Health Service Corps, St Charles, Virginia.
Staff Physician, Lee County Community Hospital, Pennington Gap Virginia.
Duties:
Chair, Medical Care Evaluation Committee and Pharmaceuticals Committee
Medical Director Respiratory therapy
Consulting physician ICCU.
Rural primary care delivery to pediatric and adult populations
Programs Begun:
Powell Valley Electric Co. Successful solicitation for electrical power delivery to hundreds of Lee County Residents for residential use
Successful solicitation of National Health Service Corps to bring Obstetrical care to Lee County Community Hospital

RESIDENCY TRAINING:

- 1987-1988 Resident, Family Practice Program Chicago College of Osteopathic Medicine, Chicago, Illinois
- 1983-1984 Resident Internal Medicine Program, Metropolitan Hospital, Parkview division, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania
- 1982-1983 Osteopathic Rotating Internship Metropolitan Hospital, Parkview Division Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

EDUCATION:

- 2003-2004 Tufts University School of Medicine
Harrison Street, Boston, MA
Master's Degree Public Health,
Concentration: Health Services Management
- 1978-1982 Medical School: Philadelphia College of Osteopathic Medicine.
4150 City avenue Philadelphia, PA
Doctor of Osteopathic Medicine
- 1977, 1978 Masters courses taken, Villanova University, Villanova Pennsylvania
Genetics, Biochemistry
- 1973-1978 Bachelor of Science; St Joseph's University, 54th and City avenue,
Philadelphia, PA

BOARD CERTIFICATION:

- 1988-Present American Osteopathic Board of Family Practitioners
Certification # 3638
American Osteopathic Association #040494

SCHOLASTIC ACHIEVEMENT:

- 2005 Elected to membership in the Rho chapter of the Delta Omega Society for academic achievement in Tufts' Public Health Program
- 1980-1982 Sandoz award for scholastic achievement and leadership award
- 1978-1982 Philadelphia College of Osteopathic Medicine leadership award

PROFESSIONAL RECOGNITION

- 2004 Recognized by American College of Osteopathic Family Practitioners for outstanding service as an ACOFP preceptor for 2004
- 1997-2006 Recognized by community and County School Administration District for two decades of service to student health, heading immunization programs and contributions made to public health curriculum.
- 1993 Recognized by CDC for diagnosing first reported case of Rocky Mountain Spotted Fever in Maine
- Sept. 1992-
June, 1993 Successfully completed faculty development course, University of New England College of Osteopathic Medicine