Terms: You will be notified of your registration status promptly if you supply a valid email address. Please supply a self-addressed stamped envelope only if you do NOT have a valid email address. In order to maintain the unique atmosphere of our festival, we intend to admit only 100 participants to this conference. Admittance will be offered on a first-come, first-served basis. Although we strive to provide healthy and tasty meals, we cannot meet everyone's taste or requirements. Those with health problems should come prepared to provide for themselves in the event that we have food items that do not meet your daily requirements. Your application to the Mountain Heritage Literary Festival confirms that you agree LMU and the MHLF cannot be held responsible for any accidents while on campus. Cancellation policy: full refund if you cancel before April 30; May 1-May 31 half refund; May 31-June 24 no refund. If you agree to these terms please sign below.
