IV. COURSE REQUIREMENTS, ASSESSMENT (LEARNING OUTCOMES) AND EVALUATION METHODS:

Learning Outcomes: This graduate course addresses the three themes essential to the conceptual framework of the Lincoln Memorial University’s Carter & Moyers School of Education: Values, Education, and Service. Using values congruent with dispositions of the profession, candidates will actively apply coursework in the school and/or community environment. Throughout this course candidates will engage in activities to extend their professional and pedagogical knowledge, along with applying, evaluating, and reflecting on course content that contributes to continuous improvement of education practice. Another component is researching current standards-based instructional strategies that appropriately address diverse learning styles. This course emphasizes the goal of encouraging our graduates to engage in service to diverse student bodies, schools and communities by exhibiting and modeling professional behavior in the field that models integrity, fairness, and ethical decision-making which is in the best interests of all students and stakeholders. The ultimate aim in emphasizing these three themes is to produce educational leaders who reflect Lincoln Memorial University’s motto, Preparing Professional Educators of Distinction to Make a Positive Impact on This Generation and the Next.

Requirements (see Course Outline and Requirements section)
1. Reading and discussion of required materials. See related discussion guides
2. In-class writings
3. Any other readings or in-class activities that the instructor may assign
4. Group Projects: Groups will research assigned topics for presentation to the class.
5. Key Assignments: Each course includes two Key Assignments that are critical to successful completion of the course. Key Assignments are submitted VIA/LiveText and will be assessed electronically by the instructor using a rubric. In addition to the Key Assignments, the instructor may require other coursework.

Clinical Experience: This is a clinical experience course

Evaluation Method: Assignments will be evaluated based on program standards using various assessment tools, including rubrics. The University official Graduate Education grading system will be utilized.

Attendance Policy: Cooperative and group learning are essential components of the MEd program. When class absences occur, students can make up for knowledge and skills by completing required assignments, but they are not able to make up for the knowledge and skills their participation in class would have provided to their own learning and to their fellow students’ learning. Therefore, even with successful completion of make-up assignments, excessive class absences will cause a reduction in the final course grade. The first absence in a semester will not result in a reduction of final grade. The second absence will result in a reduction of one letter grade. Three absences will result in a final grade of C or lower. More than three absences will result in a grade of F for the course(s) taken that semester. Faculty will determine when circumstances legitimately cause a student to be tardy or need to leave a class early; however, a pattern of excessive tardiness or leaving early may affect grade. Students may not make up for an absence at another class site. Refer to the Graduate Catalog for further academic information and restrictions.

If a class is cancelled by LMU due to weather or other unforeseen circumstances, a make-up date may be scheduled.

V. METHODS OF INSTRUCTION: Instructional methods will include lecture, class discussion, reflection, collaborative assignments, group presentations, problem solving, and written assignments.

VI. INFORMATION LITERACY/TECHNOLOGICAL RESOURCES:
Technology
Incoming students must be computer literate and be able to use software for e-mail, word processing, web browsing, and information retrieval. Students must have access to the Internet for communicating with instructors and accessing learning resources. Computer access must be available on a personal computer.

Candidates will be required to submit some assignments to Turnitin, the computer program designed for checking literature duplication. Submitting additional course work to Turnitin is at the instructor’s discretion. Instructions for using Turnitin can be found at http://www.turnitin.com/en_us/training/student-training viaLiveText.com: Each student will be required to establish or continue an account with the viaLiveText.com program. viaLiveText.com is a web-based application offering a comprehensive suite of development, management, and assessment tools. This suite of tools provides colleges and universities with the capability to assess student work online using assessment instruments that have been developed and implemented by the individual college faculty and/or departments. Specific instructions are posted on the School of Education website at http://www.lmunet.edu/academics/schools/school-of-education.

X. Plagiarism

Plagiarism is the presentation of someone else’s words or ideas as one’s own (See APA Publication Manual, 6th ed., pp.15-16). One of the most common forms of plagiarism is the paraphrasing of several phrases, sentences of ideas in a paragraph with only one citation at the end of the paragraph, resulting in confusion between the cited content and the researcher’s own words or ideas. Another common form is the practice of substituting words or phrases while retaining the original author’s form and structure.

Plagiarism in any form is one of the most egregious violations of professional ethics an author can commit. Submission of plagiarized material, even by accident or ignorance, is a severe infraction of the professional ethical code and can result in expulsion from the program. To avoid plagiarism:

- Cite sources within the text for all phrases or ideas that are quoted or paraphrased.
- Cite sources within the text in the format delineated in the APA Manual, pp. 174-179.

Certification of Authorship. I certify that I am the author of this paper titled ______________ and that any assistance I received in its preparation is fully acknowledged and disclosed in the paper. I have also cited any sources from which I used data, ideas, or words, either quoted directly or paraphrased. I also certify that this paper was prepared by me specifically for this course. I understand that falsification of information will affect my status as a graduate student.
