Course Number IL 502
Course Title: Practicum for Licensure in Instructional Leadership
Course Term and Year – Licensure Cohort
Summer 2016
Course Credit Hour 3 hours

FACULTY:
Dr. Rodney Russell (A0)       Dr. Sam Shepherd (M2)       Dr. Scott Porter (K0)       TBA (P0)
Rodney.russell@lmunet.edu     Samuel.shepherd@lmunet.edu     scott.porter@lmunet.edu

FACULTY/MENTORS: All candidates will have a qualified mentor assigned by the university. Mentors must have had successful careers as principals, supervisors, or both. Candidates will also have a school based advisor who helps select and monitor practicum activities. School based advisors must be practicing instructional leaders in the school system of employment of the candidate. Mentors will be trained using SREB mentoring training materials.
The mentor will assist in developing, supporting and supervising the nine total hours of practicum credit which are required as part of the program. Requirements for the practicum are identified in three sequential courses beginning with IL 502. Non-licensure IL majors will not require a mentor and will register for EL 502.

CAEP Definition of Clinical Experience: “Guided, hands-on, practical applications and demonstrations of professional knowledge of theory to practice skills, and dispositions through collaborative and facilitated learning in field-based assignments, tasks, activities, and assessments across a variety of settings”.

I. COURSE DESCRIPTION: This course focuses on supervised application of skills that approximate employment as a school principal.

II. COURSE OBJECTIVES: This course will link the classroom experience to the application of the skills and knowledge. Students will see theory become practice.

III. Textbook:

IV. COURSE REQUIREMENTS, ASSESSMENT (LEARNING OUTCOMES) AND EVALUATION METHODS:
The administrative licensure program requires a total of 100 hours of clinical leadership experiences. Those experiences will include both seminar and individual assignments/experiences developed in cooperation with the student/mentor, and principal or school advising instructional leader and organized in the Instructional Leadership Clinical Experience Handbook. The activities related to each course in the program will be developed from, but not limited to, the list of suggested activities attached to this syllabus. Activities for each practicum shall have rigor and will equate to three hours of graduate credit. Seminars will be scheduled each semester to allow mentors, and cohort member candidates, to share experiences and to establish cooperative/supportive relationships.
In addition to the activities related to each course, candidates will spend a minimum of fifteen hours each semester assisting with supervisory duties. (Complete an activity summary of the complete experience.) See attached Instructional Leadership Clinical Experience Handbook for details. Documented hours for the entire practicum should not be less than 100 hours. A comprehensive Practicum Licensure rubric that encompasses the entire field experience will be used to assess activities.
documented in the electronic portfolio by the mentor, faculty advisor, and school based Instructional Leader advisor at the end of the Licensure Program.

STUDENTS WILL BE REQUIRED TO DEVELOP AN ePORTFOLIO TO DOCUMENT ALL PRACTICUM EXPERIENCES.

V. METHODS OF INSTRUCTION: Field-based mentored leadership activities.

VI. INFORMATION LITERACY/TECHNOLOGICAL RESOURCES
Incoming students must be computer literate and be able to use software for e-mail, word processing, web browsing, and information retrieval. Students must have access to the internet for communicating with instructors and accessing learning resources. Computer access must be available on a personal computer.

Turn-it-in Portions of Research Project will be required to be submitted to Turn-It-In, the computer program designed for checking literature duplication. Submitting additional course work to Turn-It-In is at the instructor’s discretion. Instructions will be available early in the semester on the Graduate Education Office webpage.

LiveText
Each student will be required to establish an account with the LiveText program by the second class session. LiveText is a web-based application offering a comprehensive suite of development, management, and assessment tools. This suite of tools provides colleges and universities with the capability to assess student work online using assessment instruments that have been developed and implemented by the individual college faculty and/or departments. Specific instructions will be distributed on a separate handout at your first class session. LiveText may be purchased online at http://college.livetext.com or through the LMU Bookstore. LiveText Help is available on the Graduate Office web page – see the web page address on the previous page.

Library Resources
The Carnegie-Vincent Library provides access to three outstanding databases in the Education field: ERIC, the Educational Resource Information Center, the premier database for education related journal articles and documents containing over one million citations and links to more than 100,000 documents in full-text; Professional Collection, a custom selection of more than 300 full text periodicals for educators covering the subject areas of “health and fitness, school law, drug and alcohol abuse, learning disabilities, sports, arts and humanities, social sciences, and psychology;” and ProQuest Education Journals database which contains access to 760 leading journals of which over 600 are in full-text. Additionally, the library provides access to over 100 other databases and can obtain books and articles from libraries worldwide through Interlibrary Loan.

VII. UNIVERSITY POLICIES:

STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES POLICY: As a rule, all students must read and comply with standards of the LMU Student Handbook and LMU catalogue. Any student seeking assistance in accordance with the Americans Disabilities Act (1990 as amended) should contact the ADA Coordinator, Dan Graves, with regard to required documentation and in order to make appropriate arrangements. Contact information: Grant Lee 104 dan.graves@lmunet.edu and/or 423.869.6531 (800-325-0900 ext. 6531).

COUNSELING: LMU counselors are available to help current students with personal, career and academic concerns that affect academic success and quality of life. The counseling offices are located in Grant Lee 102. The Director of Counseling, Jason Kishpaugh, can be contacted at jason.kishpaugh@lmunet.edu and/or 423.869.6401 (800-325-0900 ext. 6401).

DISCRIMINATION, SCHOLASTIC DISHONESTY, CHEATING, AND PLAGIARISM POLICIES can be found in the student handbook:
LMU’s website: http://www.lmunet.edu/student-life/handbooks
COURSE EVALUATIONS: In addition to meeting degree requirements specified in the graduate and undergraduate catalogs, all students are required to complete University-administered course evaluations.

OUTCOMES ASSESSMENT TESTING: Degree requirements include participating in all outcomes assessment testing (e.g., general education assessment, major field tests, etc.) and activities when requested. Students may be required to complete one or more questionnaires and to take one or more standardized tests to determine general educational achievement as a prerequisite to graduation (see appropriate catalog for additional information).

LMU’S INCLEMENT WEATHER POLICY can be found at the following link to LMU’s website: http://www.lmunet.edu/student-life/weather-cancellation-notification. Students should check their LMU email during delays/closures to receive information from individual faculty regarding potential assignments and/or other course information.

INSTRUCTIONAL CONTINUITY IN CASE OF CAMPUS CLOSURE: Faculty and students should expect scheduled instruction to continue even if class meetings are cancelled due to weather, epidemic illness, or other factors. Students will be required to complete alternate instructional activities online as directed by the course instructor.

FOR ALABAMA STUDENTS:

Alabama Commission on Higher Education Disclaimer Statement

State authorization to provide a program related to the preparation of teachers or other P-12 school/system personnel does not indicate eligibility for an Alabama certificate. Applicants for an Alabama certificate based on reciprocity must meet Alabama’s test requirements and submit a valid, renewable professional educator certificate/license issued by another state at the degree level, grade level, and in the teaching field or area of instructional support for which an Alabama certificate is sought and for which Alabama issues a certificate. Applicants for Alabama certification in an area of administration must also document at least three years of full-time employment as an administrator in a P-12 school system(s). Assessment: IL 502 KA #1 Formative Instructional Leadership Rubric IL 502 KA #2 Philosophy of Instructional Leadership. Analyze the belief statements in your school’s improvement plan, research beliefs, core values, and guiding principles from other schools and/or businesses to develop a personal set of beliefs, core values and guiding principles. Share the plan with faculty or educator groups because your beliefs define who you are, both educationally and personally. This is the decision-making foundation for the individual and the school. Decisions are based on philosophy and core values.

- Meet with the principal, or an administrator in your school, to discuss plans for the upcoming school year. This should include a discussion of data from the previous school year and the SIP for the coming year.
- Interview a decision maker in an agency, other than a school, that serves youth (e.g., juvenile court, children services, etc.) and reflect on how this person should be involved in school decisions.
- Interview a principal from a school at a different level than the one where you teach/work.
- Write two goals for next year for your current position. Support each goal with one strategy that is new to you.
- Meet with the mentor monthly.
- Complete activity/reflection log and secure the signature of the mentor and school official.
- See Instruction Leadership Clinical Experience Handbook for additional clinical experience suggested activities

X. Student Community Engagement: A cornerstone of the University’s mission is service to humanity. As part of the University’s Student Service Initiative, students receiving any form of institutional aid participate in at least 10 hours of service learning per semester. Students are encouraged to network with one another in classroom settings and with instructors and advisors for searching out and creating appropriate service learning projects related to their field of study. For more information visit: http://www.lmunet.edu/student-life/student-service-initiative or contact the Associate Dean of Students, Elise Syoen, at Elise.Syoen@LMUnet.edu

PLAGIARISM
Plagiarism is the presentation of someone else’s words or ideas as one’s own (See APA Publication Manual, 6th ed., pp.15-16). One of the most common forms of plagiarism is the paraphrasing of several phrases, sentences of ideas in a paragraph with only one citation at the end of the paragraph, resulting in confusion between the cited content and the researcher’s own words or ideas. Another common form is the practice of substituting words or phrases while retaining the original author’s form and structure.

Plagiarism in any form is one of the most egregious violations of professional ethics an author can commit. Submission of plagiarized material, even by accident or ignorance, is a severe infraction of the professional ethical code and can result in expulsion from the program. To avoid plagiarism:

- Cite sources within the text for all phrases or ideas that are quoted or paraphrased.
- Cite sources within the text in the format delineated in the APA Manual, pp. 174-179.

CERTIFICATION OF AUTHORSHIP. I certify that I am the author of this paper titled ___________________ and that any assistance I received in its preparation is fully acknowledged and disclosed in the paper. I have also cited any sources from which I used data, ideas, or words, either quoted directly or paraphrased. I also certify that this paper was prepared by me specifically for this course. I understand that falsification of information will affect my status as a graduate student.
