

LETTER FROM THE DESK OF CHIEF HONEYCUTT

On Wednesday, February 22, 2023, LMU dispatch was notified of a person attempting to get into cars. Officers of the LMU Police and Security were immediately dispatched to the area of Burchett Hall but the perpetrator had already left the area. An investigation who started at this time with video being reviewed and various database's that we have put into place being used to identify the vehicle and eventually the person who was operating the vehicle and attempting to do the break ins. With help from other police departments LMU Police and Security was able to locate the vehicle in Middlesboro, Kentucky but was unable to make contact with the person involved. Arrest warrants have been issued and will be served on him this week. LMU Police and Security is committed to the safety and security of our campus community and by working together we will succeed in that endeavor. If you see something, say something. LMU dispatch phone number is 423-869-6911.

David Honeycutt

Chief of LMU Police and Security