

Accessing Library Resources Off Campus

Finding articles, ebooks and other e-resources that you might need is easy and all that you will need is a device and your LMU username and password.

1. Go to the LMU Library Home Page at <http://library.lmunet.edu/library/Home>
2. From the home page there are several ways to find what you are looking for
  - Use the search feature to look for keywords, authors and titles across our collection
  - Look to the far left at our full text journal collection, book delivery and interlibrary loan options
  - Browse databases
3. In order to see the full text articles off site, you will need to log in using your username and password (Do NOT use the @lmunet.edu portion!)
4. Here's the best place to start (far left of home page) if you're looking for a specific article or volume/issue:

#1: Click on the "Full Text Journal" option

#2: Type the title of the journal (e.g. JAVMA) or article into the search bar (be sure to select the tab for the appropriate search)

#3: Click the title of the journal

5. And here's the best place to start if you're looking for resources regarding a broader subject topic:

#1: Search for your subject topic

#2: Limit your search results to LMU and "Full Text"

#3: Click the article title you'd like to view

#4: Enter your username (NO @Imunet.edu) and password

#5: If PDF access is allowed you can download the article in its original format. If not you can still read the HTML version. Note: not all databases or other journal access points have the same format and things may look different as you search
