

When life's responsibilities add up, simplify the equation

Solutions Are Just a Phone Call Away

Telephonic Counseling - Stressed? Just call to talk. A professional will discuss whatever is on your mind. They're here around-the-clock to listen to you and help find solutions.

Housing - Are you worried about rent money? Have you received an eviction notice? Are you having roommate troubles? We can help you find housing options or refer you to agencies that focus on housing assistance.

Childcare - Has your childcare fallen through? We can assist in locating information on childcare options and subsidized childcare agencies.

Financial - Do you need a budget or are you having trouble making ends meet? We provide assistance with referrals to agencies that might be able to assist with rent, utilities and food. There are also agencies to work with you on credit card debt issues and budgeting.

Legal Assistance - Do you have child custody, divorce, domestic violence, or other legal issues? We provide a free legal consultation over the phone with an attorney and, when needed, a referral to a local attorney at a reduced rate.

Transportation - Are you having trouble getting to school? We will assist in locating public transportation, rideshare programs, or other assistance.

Health Care - Are you struggling with health issues and looking for a clinic? We can help locate medical and dental services on a sliding fee scale. We can also help in finding a program that may offer prescriptions at a reduced rate.
