

FALL 2020 FIRST YEAR, FULL-TIME PROGRAM SCHEDULE

The full-time program is designed to complete the program of legal education in three (3) years.

If you have a 3.000 LGPA after the spring semester of your first year, you can apply for the Accelerated JD Program and possibly graduate in two-and-a-half (2.5) years.

The Office for Academic Affairs will register you for your classes and sections (if applicable) your first year. You will begin registering for your classes starting your second year. You should be able to see your individual schedule through WebAdvisor for Students (Academic Profile/My Class Schedule) on MyLMU no later than Wednesday, July 22nd.

Doctrinal classes are scheduled on Mondays/Thursdays or Tuesdays/Fridays. Writing (Legal Communication), research (Legal Research), and academic success classes (Legal Foundations) are offered through multiple sections for each subject on various days.

Minor changes may occur depending on final enrollment numbers, especially for Legal Communication, Legal Research, and Legal Foundations.

Please refer to LMU Law's Fall 2020 Policies for Facilities and Programming for attendance options in the event you need options during the COVID-10 pandemic.
