MISSION AND PURPOSE

Lincoln Memorial University is a comprehensive values-based learning community dedicated to providing quality educational experiences at the undergraduate, graduate, and professional levels. The University strives to give students a foundation for a more productive life by upholding the principles of Abraham Lincoln's life: a dedication to individual liberty, responsibility, and improvement; a respect for citizenship; recognition of the intrinsic value of high moral and ethical standards; and a belief in a personal God.

The University's curriculum and commitment to quality instruction at every level are based on the beliefs that graduates must be able to communicate clearly and effectively in an era of rapidly and continuously expanding communication technology, must have an appreciable depth of learning in a field of knowledge, must appreciate and understand the various ways by which we come to know ourselves and the world around us, and must be able to exercise informed judgments.

The University believes that one of the major cornerstones of meaningful existence is service to humanity. By making educational, service, and research opportunities available to students, Lincoln Memorial University seeks to improve life for the students it serves. While serving students from throughout the state, nation, and many other countries, the University retains a commitment to enrich the lives of people and communities in the Appalachian region.

Because LMU is an educational institution, its main response to AIDS will be educational in nature. The University will be responsible for disseminating the latest information on AIDS and AIDS prevention to the campus community. The University will strive to maintain the following guidelines; however, each situation will be evaluated on a case-by-case basis.

- There is no medical justification for restricting the access of persons with AIDS, AIDS Related Complex (ARC), or a positive HIV antibody test to campus facilities or activities.
- Most students, faculty, or staff who have AIDS, ARC, or a positive HIV antibody test will not have restricted access to facilities or activities.
- The existence of AIDS, ARC, or a positive HIV antibody test will not be considered in the initial admission decision to the institution.
- The existence of AIDS, ARC, or a positive HIV antibody test will not be part of the decision regarding residence hall assignment except in the following situation: Immune compromised students may require special (separate) housing accommodation for their own protection, and this will be provided when such housing is available and only with the permission and consent of the student involved. Although a good faith attempt will be made to provide such accommodations, the institution is under no obligation to create such an accommodation when one is not readily available.
- Students, faculty, or staff are encouraged to inform campus authorities (i.e. students inform the Dean of Students; faculty/staff inform the Vice President for Academic Affairs and Provost) if they have AIDS, ARC, or a positive HIV antibody test so the University can meet the needs of the individual. All medical information will be handled and maintained by the University in a strictly confidential manner. Students enrolled in programs with clinical rotations are required to disclose their health status, including a diagnosis of AIDS, ARC, or a positive HIV antibody test.

- No specific or detailed information concerning complaints or diagnosis will be provided to faculty, administrators, or parents, without the express written permission of the individual. SECTION IV: THE CODE OF CONDUCT AND CONDUCT PROCESS

CODE OF STUDENT CONDUCT 2019-2020

The purpose of the Code of Student Conduct is to provide a structure to hold students accountable for their actions and decisions in an effort to educate and transform future behavior on campus.

The Code of Student Conduct (“Code”) is intended to describe the types of behaviors that conflict with University standards and set forth the general procedures (“Conduct Process”) that shall be used to ensure these standards are met by all students. The Conduct Process provides students the opportunity to respond to allegations brought against them and to offer their perspective regarding the allegations. It is designed to fit within the University’s larger education system and does not function as a court of law. Where the allegations are more serious, and therefore the consequences are potentially more serious, the rules of procedure are more formally structured. The Conduct Process is not a substitute for the criminal and civil courts and, therefore, may function simultaneously to any criminal, civil, or administrative proceedings.

JURISDICTION

The Code applies to any individual admitted and/or enrolled into a program of study at Lincoln Memorial University. Programs of study which require licensure to enter the profession may have separate or additional procedures for addressing behavioral issues for students enrolled in those programs. Conduct issues involving students from those programs may be forwarded to those programs for resolution. The Code applies to any student behavior occurring from the time of admission/enrollment through the actual awarding of a degree. A student who has an unresolved conduct matter at the time of commencement will may be prohibited from participating in commencement ceremonies and a decision on degree conferral shall be delayed until the conduct matter is resolved.

OFF CAMPUS CONDUCT

As a student, and thereby a representative of the Lincoln Memorial University community, behavior of students both on and off campus is a reflection of the University. Violations of the Code have a negative impact on the University community and the pursuit and achievement of its mission, vision, values, and bylaws. Therefore, alleged violations of the Code which occur off campus shall subject the student to investigation, review, and action under the Code.

LAWS AND REGULATIONS

Students are also subject to all applicable international, federal, state, and local laws and regulations. Alleged violations of laws and regulations that occur on or off campus are also considered violations of the Code and subject to University investigation, review, and action. Each student is individually responsible for being informed of the laws and regulations. Ignorance of the law is not an acceptable defense for prohibited conduct.

CODE OF STUDENT CONDUCT

LMU students are expected to maintain high standards of private and public conduct both on and off campus. The following enumerated sections constitute conduct which conflicts with the community standards of LMU. Engaging in such conduct and other generally prohibited behaviors, whether or not covered by specific regulation, shall subject a student to disciplinary action.

Failure to complete the educational requirements will result in forfeiture of amnesty and action will be taken under the Code.

THE CONDUCT PROCESS

The conduct process relies on the following personnel and committees:

VICE PRESIDENT/DEAN, ENROLLMENT & STUDENT AFFAIRS

The Office of the Dean of Students administers the Code of Student Conduct and Conduct Process for LMU. Incident Reports and Complaints about potential violations of The Code as well as any inquiries concerning the overall conduct process should be directed to the Office of the Dean of Students. This office is located on the 2nd floor of the Whitford-DAR building.

Assistant Dean of Students & Director of Student Development

The Assistant Dean of Students is responsible for properly implementing fair conduct procedures and overseeing the administration of the student conduct process. This includes the identification of potential violations of the Code of Conduct, the investigation and presentation of cases on behalf of the University during Hearings, and the investigation and resolution of cases through informal resolution. The Assistant Dean of Students may designate any other appropriate administrator to perform these duties.

CONDUCT OFFICERS

Conduct Officers are administrators designated and trained by the Assistant Dean of Students to resolve incidents via the informal process. A Conduct Officer may find a student responsible for violations of the Code and assign appropriate sanctions.

DOCUMENTATION

When an alleged violation of University policy has occurred, all available documentation shall be compiled and considered as part of any resolution proceedings. Documentation shall include but is not limited to incident report(s), police reports, witness reports, photos, recordings, etc. Incidents that involved Campus Police and Security should include a copy of the police report.

DUE PROCESS

Due process is defined as providing for fair treatment through established rules, principles, and process. Allowing and affording full due process is central to the integrity of all conduct proceedings. Records shall be retained to demonstrate due process.

RIGHTS OF STUDENTS

Students have rights under the conduct process and as incidents are reviewed and resolved to a satisfactory degree as determined by the University. Those rights are herein enumerated:

1. Right to an Advisor. Students shall have the right to have a non-attorney advisor of their choosing to be present during meetings with the University. Students may be accompanied by one non-attorney advisor of their choosing throughout all aspects of their case and to all meetings and hearings. The advisor is not an advocate, but rather a source of personal and moral support to the student. An advisor may not be a witness, speak, or otherwise participate on behalf of the student. The Office of the Assistant Dean of Students and Director of Student Development will communicate all information concerning all aspects of the case directly to the student. No information will be discussed with or provided to an advisor absent the student's involvement. Timelines, meetings, hearings, and/or deadlines for submission of materials may not be altered to accommodate an advisor. If the Office of the Assistant Dean of Students and Director of Student Development is resolving a case of student conduct, a parent /guardian, at the discretion of the Assistant Dean of Students or her designee, may also accompany a student in addition to a non-attorney advisor if the advisor is not the student's parent.

2. Right of Reasonable Notice and Due Process. Students shall have the right to proper notice and due process through established student conduct procedures. Students shall be reasonably notified prior to a meeting or hearing to resolve an incident of potential violation of conduct. Reasonable notice is considered at least 48 hours in advance of any scheduled meeting or hearing. If a student receives a student conduct citation and wishes to schedule a meeting, the student is responsible for scheduling the meeting. All notices shall be sent to the student's University email address provided through the LMU designated domain. No notice shall be sent to non-LMU email addresses.
3. Right to Review and be Informed of Conduct Policies. Students shall have the right to read and review the conduct process and policies associated with student conduct.
4. Right of Confidentiality. Student shall have the right to confidentiality as governed by the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act ("FERPA") and according to the University's policies and procedures. However, the student has the right to waive confidentiality to the extent permitted by FERPA. (Please be advised that pursuant to FERPA, some exceptions apply such that confidential information may be disclosed without the student's consent — including, but not limited to, instances of health and safety emergencies involving the University, students, or the community.)

INTERIM SUSPENSION

Interim Suspension is issued in extreme or unusual cases when there is reason to believe, supported by sufficient evidence, that the continued presence of a student on campus presents an immediate danger or threat of harm to himself/herself or other members of the campus community. This may include but is not limited to, threat of disruption of any University operations or activities. Interim Suspension includes the immediate suspension of all student privileges associated with attending the University, including its related functions. A student who has been placed on Interim Suspension may not attend classes, may not participate in any University activities, and may be prohibited from being on University property pending the investigation of potential violations of the Code and outcome issued by a Conduct Resolution Panel.

The student will be provided an Interim Suspension letter that states that the student is either 1) suspended from the university and/or 2) is banned from all or selected campus events, activities or facilities until a Conduct Resolution Panel meeting can be convened. Upon receipt of the interim suspension, if the student is on campus or in university facilities, the student will be expected to vacate campus including their residential space (if they are a residential student). Upon receiving an Interim Suspension letter, the student can immediately request an interim suspension review by emailing a request to the Assistant Dean of Students and Director of Student Development. If the review is granted, the student will be given an opportunity to demonstrate why his or her continued presence on campus does not constitute a threat to themselves, others, or property. As part of the review, the student may be required to submit to an immediate medical/psychological evaluation. If the decision to issue Interim Suspension is upheld, the suspension and/or ban from campus events, activities, or facilities will remain in effect until the Conduct Resolution Panel has convened to review and hear the circumstances of a student's case/incident. The Conduct Resolution Panel meeting determines the outcome and sanctions based on the student's behavior that is the subject of the suspension.

STANDARD AND BURDEN OF PROOF

In the University's conduct process, a reasonable person's perspective will be used to determine whether the burden of proof has been met. The burden of proof utilized in resolution of incidents through the conduct process is "More Likely than Not."

- The "More Likely than Not" standard allows for a finding of responsibility if it is determined that it is more likely than not that a violation of the Code occurred based on information provided during the process.

The University bears the burden of proving that a student has violated the Code.

RESOLUTIONS

There are two methods by which suspected violations of the Code may be resolved; through Informal Resolution or Formal Resolution

INFORMAL Resolution

Informal Resolution allows students suspected of a violation of the Code to resolve the violation administratively without going before a Formal Conduct Resolution Panel. Either of the following two approaches may be considered to achieve Informal Resolution:

- Conduct Citation Letter and/or Fine – A student may receive a conduct citation letter for some first-time violations as outlined in the Sanctioning Guidelines below. If a student receives a conduct citation letter and/or fine, the student may either 1) request an informal resolution meeting with a Conduct Officer or 2) accept the conduct citation letter as a written warning and pay any applicable fine imposed.
- Resolution Agreement – A student shall be provided with a notice to appear before a Conduct Officer. If the student admits appropriate responsibility for the alleged violations, the Conduct Officer and the student may enter into an informal resolution agreement reflecting the agreed upon Code violations. The conduct officer shall assign sanctions appropriate to the agreed upon violation(s) utilizing the conduct sanctioning grid and professional discretion. A disciplinary record will be created reflecting Code violations and sanctions contained in the resolution agreement. There is no right to appeal a resolution agreement. If the student does not admit appropriate responsibility for the alleged violation(s) or if the student does not agree to enter into the resolution agreement proposed by the Conduct Officer, the matter shall be scheduled for formal resolution.

FORMAL Resolution

If Informal Resolution is not appropriate for the violation or if an informal agreement is unable to be reached, a suspected violation of the Code will be heard formally as outlined below.

- The Assistant Dean of Students and Director of Student Development shall convene a hearing before a Conduct Resolution Panel. The Panel shall be composed of one (1) student and three (3) faculty/staff, for a total of four (4) panel members. The panel members shall be selected from a pool of Conduct Resolution Panel members who are trained regarding the Code of Student Conduct and the Conduct process. In the event any selected panel member has a conflict of interest, the Assistant Dean shall relieve the panel member and select another panel member.
- Conduct Resolution Panel members shall select one of its members to serve as a Chairperson. The Chairperson shall have responsibility for leading and conducting the hearing and for ensuring that all paperwork and outcome materials are promptly returned to the Assistant

- Dean of Students and Director of Student Development. The Chair person shall be a non-voting member.
- The Assistant Dean of Students and Director of Student Development shall serve as the University's advocate during the hearing. The Assistant Dean shall present to the Conduct Resolution Panel information regarding the alleged Code violation(s), including but not limited to written materials, evidence, and any supporting documentation. The Assistant Dean shall ensure the integrity of the formal process is maintained, provide clarification on the process and information presented as needed, and make sanction recommendations, as appropriate. The Assistant Dean shall not serve as a voting member of the Conduct Resolution Panel.
 - During a Conduct Resolution Panel, the student will serve as their own advocate. An advisor may not speak for a student during the hearing. During the hearing, the student will be asked what the student believes to be the student's level of responsibility for violating the Code. The student will also be asked to explain what happened from the student's perspective and also respond to panel member questions. The student will be able to confirm or refute the evidence presented as well as present any additional evidence or witnesses that the student believes is appropriate in the student's defense.
 - If a student is found responsible, the panel shall assign sanctions appropriate to the violation(s) of the Code using the Sanctioning Guidelines. The student will be provided written notice of the outcome and decision of the Conduct Resolution Panel. A disciplinary record will be created reflecting Code violations and sanctions determined by the panel.

Regarding Resolutions, it should be noted that the following includes the governing standards for determining how student behavior will be assessed:

- Formal Resolution hearings shall be audio recorded for purposes of making a record of the hearing. The Panel members' deliberation discussions shall not be audio recorded.
- If a student fails to attend an informal or formal resolution meeting, the hearing will proceed in the student's absence.
- Attempts to commit a violation will be deemed as serious as actually committing the act.
- When it is determined that a violation of the Code of Student Conduct occurred at an individual's residence, all residents may be held accountable unless compelling information, as determined by the conduct officer, is presented during adjudication of the case.
- Unless specifically stated within the definition of a violation, intent is not an element in determining responsibility, but it will be considered in the enforcement of sanctions.
- University officials may be notified of conduct violations prior to the final resolution and outcome. Such officials include, but are not limited to, Academic Deans, Coaches, and Advisors of Co-Curricular activities.
- In accordance with FERPA, University officials may notify parents, or designated legal guardians, regarding violations of law or institutional policy governing use or possession of alcohol or controlled substances if the student is under 21 and after the institution has determined a conduct violation with respect to said use or possession.

APPEALS

A student may request to appeal a determination made by the Conduct Resolution Panel. Students requesting appeal must submit the request in writing to the VP/Dean of Students within three (3) business days of receipt of the Conduct Resolution Panel determination. The VP/Dean of Students will review the request for appeal and determine if the request should be granted or denied. A request for appeal shall only be granted where it is clearly demonstrated in the student's request for appeal that one of the following circumstances exists:

- New Information – There is new information that was not allowed or that was unable to be presented or that may have been unavailable at the time of the formal resolution hearing that could have altered the outcome if the information had been considered by the Conduct Resolution Panel.
- Extraordinarily Disproportionate Sanctions – The sanctions imposed are excessively harsh or unreasonable based on the circumstances.
- Flaw in the Process – There was a clear flaw in the Conduct process that may have resulted in an inappropriate outcome.

Mere disagreement with the Panel's determination is not grounds for an appeal. If a request for appeal is denied, the Student shall be notified in writing. If a request for appeal is granted, the VP/Dean of Students shall work with the chair of the Student Appeals Committee to convene a Student Appeals Committee (within 5 business days) to review the matter. The student shall be notified in writing.

The Appeals Committee shall consist of:

- Appeals Committee Chair (Non-voting);
- One Senior Administrator;
- One Academic Dean Representative; and
- One Student Representative

When deemed appropriate, the VP/Dean of Students may designate an alternate non-voting Chair. A review by the Appeals Committee is not an opportunity to re-hear the matter. Rather, the Appeals Committee is charged with reviewing the information to determine if the matter should be sent back to the Conduct Resolution Panel for rehearing due to the circumstances set forth in the Student's request for appeal. The Appeals Committee shall review all documents, written materials, and evidence presented at the Formal Resolution hearing. The Appeals Committee shall also have access to the audio recording of the hearing. The Appeals Committee may, at their discretion, choose to call witnesses to provide clarification regarding documents, written materials, and evidence as necessary.

The Appeals Committee may either overturn or uphold the Panel's determination as follows:

- OVERTURN (with feedback and direction): This decision indicates that the Appeals Committee found evidence to support that the case should be heard again. The Appeals Committee will send the case back to the Conduct Resolution Panel for rehearing. The Appeals Committee will provide to the Conduct Resolution Panel feedback and direction in writing to help ensure that certain items are addressed and resolved in the rehearing. The rehearing determination may not be appealed.
- UPHELD – This decision indicates that the Appeals Committee did not find evidence to support that the case should be heard again and that the Panel's determination should stand.

CONDUCT STANDING

An active conduct record is defined as one in which any case(s) remain open. Conduct records shall be closed when all sanctions are completed and fulfilled.

An active conduct record may affect student applications, leadership positions, and/or awards while a student is enrolled. Upon graduation or departure from the University, an active conduct record could result in the student account being placed on hold, thus limiting access to transcripts or student records.

ALTERATION OF PROCESS

The Office of the Assistant Dean of Students and Director of Student Development reserves the right to alter the conduct process during the summer months and/or when school is not in session in order to address conduct issues in a timely manner. This alteration in process may include but is not limited to use of distance technology, extension of outlined timeframes to accommodate lack of personnel, etc.

SANCTIONING GUIDELINES

INTRODUCTION

The Code of Student Conduct Sanctioning Guidelines have been developed by a representative committee of faculty, staff, and students to offer general sanctioning guidelines for violations of the Code and to ensure a level of consistency among conduct officers and hearing panels when issuing sanctions. While it is sound practice for conduct officers and hearing panels to sanction within the established guidelines, the following recommendations are not designed or intended to be prescriptive. Conduct officers and hearing panels are empowered by the Code to utilize their professional judgment when weighing relevant aggravating or mitigating factors, if any. These officers may determine if any deviation from the minimum standard sanctions outlined in the attached sanctioning grid are appropriate.

GOALS

Consistent with the mission, vision, values, and bylaws of Lincoln Memorial University, sanctions are and should be designed to support the learning environment through achievement of the following goals:

- To Reestablish Order and Repair the Harm. This involves considering the common good, and sometimes may necessitate the temporary or permanent removal of the student from the University community.
- To Reimburse and/or Restore the Student. This involves returning the student to good standing within the University community, provided the safety of the community is not jeopardized by the student's presence; and/or to Reimburse the community for costs that may be associated with address in a situation
- To Reflect. This allows the student to think about their actions and the impact that their actions may have had upon themselves, others, and the University community.

SANCTION TYPES

REESTABLISH AND REPAIR

Students may receive sanctions focused on reestablishing order within the community and repairing the harm caused by a student. These sanctions follow different tracts related to a student's enrollment status at the University and a student's housing status at the University.

Specifically, these types of sanctions may include:

- Conduct Citation
- Informal Meeting
- Probation
- Suspension (Recommendation)
- Expulsion (Recommendation)
- Dismissal from a course/class (Recommendation)
- Housing Relocation
- Removal from Housing
- Loss of Privileges

REIMBURSE AND/OR RESTORE

Fines and restitution may be used as one method to help to restore the student to good standing within the University community impacted by the student's behavior. While there are not specific fines outlined in the Sanctioning Guidelines for each code violation, students may be billed for the actual repair and/or replacement cost associated with damage to real or personal property, in addition to any other sanction imposed. Other restorative methods may also be considered to assist in restoring the student to good standing with the University.

REFLECT

Consistent with the Code of Student Conduct's purpose to provide a structure to hold students accountable for their actions and decisions in an effort to educate and transform future behavior on campus, reflection and developmental sanctions are used in conjunction with other sanctions to balance individual accountability with educational opportunities for the student

Reflection and developmental sanctions cannot be assigned via a "one-size fits all" standard since each student possesses a unique set of characteristics that may contribute to his/her behavior. These sanctions are structured by the conduct officer or hearing board to allow each student the best opportunity to reflect, gain new information, and consider more deeply how his/her behavior impacts him/herself and the community. As a result, examples of these sanctions, including educational projects, may include, but are not limited to:

- Alcohol & Drug Education Programs
- Apology Letters
- Mentoring Meetings
- Educational Projects
- Reflection Papers
- Referrals to Campus Resources
- Restorative Service Hours

SANCTIONING CONSIDERATIONS

AGGRAVATING FACTORS

An aggravating factor is a circumstance, or set of circumstances, that may result in more significant sanctions for a violation of the Code. Examples of an aggravating factor may include, but are not limited to:

- Nature and Severity of the Incident
 - Committing multiple violations of the Code during a single incident;
 - Committing a violation of the Code that results in significant injury, trauma, and/or harm to another person, property, and/or the University community.
- Alcohol and Other Drugs
 - Committing a violation of the Code while under the influence of alcohol and/or other drugs;
 - Committing a violation of the Code in connection with participating in a high-risk drinking activity, such as binge drinking, drinking games and/or using alcohol-related paraphernalia (e.g. beer funnels/bongs, alcohol luges, paint sticks, shot skis)
 - Causing or requiring others to engage in such behaviors associated with alcohol and/or drugs
- Prior Student Conduct History
 - Committing multiple violations of the Code throughout the student's tenure at the University;
 - Committing a violation of the Code while on an active sanction (Until any sanction is completed, it is considered "active.")
- Bias-Related Conduct
 - Committing a violation of the Code which demonstrates clear bias against another individual;

Bias related conduct is defined as and refers to language and/or behaviors which clearly demonstrate intentional bias, unfairness, against an individual (or group of individuals) because of, but not limited to, and individual's actual or perceived:

- Color
- Disability
- Ethnicity
- Gender
- National Origin
- Race
- Religion
- Sexual Orientation

Bias related conduct is intolerable in view of the University's commitment to respect for all members of the community and may be considered an aggravating factor for any violation of the Code, regardless of the seriousness of the violation.

- Retaliatory Conduct
 - Committing a violation of the Code against another individual that is motivated by that individual's involvement in the filing or investigation of a student conduct complaint.

MITIGATING FACTORS

A mitigating factor is a circumstance, or set of circumstances, that may merit consideration of a lesser sanction. Examples of a mitigating factor may include, but are not limited to:

- Nature and Severity of the Incident
 - Committing a violation of the Code that was in self-defense and/or defense of others.
- Risk and Harm
 - Committing a violation of the Code that did not pose any direct risk and/or harm to an individual, property, the University, or the broader community in which we live.
- Accountability & Responsibility
 - Committing a violation of the Code, but exhibiting a significant amount of cooperation with University and public officials responding to the incident.
